

North Africa and the Middle East

How did European colonialism lay the groundwork for the emergence of the modern Middle East?

PREVIEW

Watch the audio slideshow. Then complete the Preview activity by following these steps:

1. Sit with a partner.
2. Tape your copy of the Student Handout together to form one large page.
3. Answer each on-screen prompt by writing lightly in pencil the name of the correct nation in the correct location on the map.
4. When the answer is revealed, erase your answer (whether correct or not) and annotate your map with the correct name and location of the nation in ink.

READING NOTES

Key Content Terms

As you complete the Reading Notes, use these terms in your answers.

millet

Zionist

plebiscite

protectorate

hajj

Sections 3 to 7

Complete your Reading Notes for each section by following these steps:

1. Sit with a partner. Have your copies of the Student Handout.
2. As you see each slide, you will:

Locate: Make sure your map on the Student Handout is correctly labeled.

Observe: Talk with your partner about these questions.

Read: Read the next section of your Student Text as directed.

Apply: Answer the question on the slide based on what you have read in the Student Text and observed in the image.

Review: On the Student Handout, take notes on the key information provided.

PROCESSING

How did European intervention in North Africa and the Middle East lead to tensions that continue to this day?

Choose one nation from the list to research in further depth about the lingering effects of European intervention. Follow these steps to write a one-page essay.

1. Write an introductory paragraph that includes a thesis statement. The thesis statement is a summary of the main point you will make in your essay.
2. Choose two or three concrete examples that demonstrate how European intervention led to tensions in the nation you have selected.
3. Develop each of these examples into a paragraph. Write a topic sentence for each paragraph. Then write supporting statements with details that support your topic sentence.
4. Write a strong concluding paragraph. Include a brief summary of your main points, showing how the points you made and the examples you used fit together.

Algeria
Egypt
Iran
Iraq
Israel
Jordan
Lebanon
Libya
Syria
Tunisia